The Association shall hold its annual meeting the first Saturday in May and a second meeting at the discretion of the Executive Committee. These meetings shall have the option to be held in a hybrid setting. Notification of meetings shall be made no less than six weeks before the Association convenes.

Rationale for Change: Hybrid meetings increase participation, promotes inclusiveness of all members of the association, and bridges communication gaps. Hybrid meetings will prevent from marginalizing any member of the association.

AMENDMENT 6: Article VIII - Amending the By-laws

CURRENT WORDING	PROPOSED AMENDMENT	IF ADOPTED WILL READ
Amendment to these By-Laws may be changed at any General Session of the Association by a majority of official voters. The changes will become effective immediately following the adjournment of the meeting.	Amendment to these By-Laws may be changed at any General Session of the Association by ~~a majority~~ two-thirds of ~~official voters~~ the votes cast, by official members of the Association provided that the proposed amendments have been circulated thirty days prior to the meeting where the voting takes place. The changes will become effective ~~immediately~~ following the adjournment of the meeting.	Amendment to these By-Laws may be changed at any General Session of the Association by two-thirds of the votes cast, by official members of the Association provided that the proposed amendments have been circulated thirty days prior to the meeting where the voting takes place. The changes will become effective following the adjournment of the meeting.

Rationale for Change: Currently, the Constitution is amended by a 2/3 vote with prior notice. However, the By-Laws state a majority vote. This change to the By-Laws will provide for consistency with how the Constitution and By-Laws are amended and will keep SSUNAA more in line with Robert's Rules of Order.
